

 Westmoreland Symphony and Academy of Music presents

Amadeus Strings

An educational offering of the Westmoreland Symphony Orchestra

Spring Semester - 2010

Jennifer Dail, a lyric soprano and violinist, is a native of Greensburg, Pennsylvania. She graduated summa cum laude from Liberty University in Virginia with a Bachelor of Music degree in Choral Performance.

Jennifer has served as concertmaster of the Liberty University Orchestra and the Westmoreland Youth Symphony Orchestra. She offers private lessons in violin and voice and is the director of Amadeus Strings.

Amadeus Strings is designed for elementary string players, who are currently taking private string lessons and who wish to play in a group setting. New playing techniques are explored while playing great string music! (If you are currently not studying privately, you may still join the group but call us first.)

Monday Evenings 6:30-7:30pm

Feb. 1 - Apr. 12

Tuition: $75

At the Academy of Music,
Greensburg Garden & Civic Center
